Comments: Thank you, Thank you, Thank you for finally offering a more "contemporary" format on Praise the Lord. I just finished watching hosts Stephen and Kennya Baldwin. To say I was blessed just isn't adequate. The Holy Spirit truly ministered to me through the more casual set, the low key (yet anointed) guests, and music. Hope to see more of this in the future. Blessings, Suzanne Hagan

Comments: We just recently got TBN back on Comcast Cable in Toms River, NJ and I was wondering if you'll ever be showing a movie called China Cry, I heard it was very good and thanks for putting Davey & Goliath back on, this is a great cartoon classic that teaches the word of god that's kids can understand, god is in my life everyday and god bless everyone at TBN.

Comments: re: Dr. Banks-on 7/19 12:20am est-interviewed by Matt & Lori-she was interesting but sounded like works oriented message-said b/c we're are taught Jesus is our avocate-we feel we can sin and not worry about it-we must perfect ourselves-we can be perfect on earth? that there is no war going on between the flesh & the spirit nature-no dual nature in born again believers-I though Paul wrote about such a dichotomy in the NT - I almost understand what she tried to say - but I spent 20 yrs of my christian walk trying to perfect myself-not possible-if she is on again-please have her explain what she has to say-especially isince new christians love to watch TBN

Comments: We love TBN, BUT I was very upset that you showed the Dolly Parton movie with her very low cut outfits. I trusted TBN for good shows...but you are tempting the male population.....
