Joy In Our Town

This month's Joy in Our Town programs featured segments with Dr. Hale Akamine of the Family Ministries Center; Nurse Cheryl Toyofuku; and River of Life staff members Shevy Gardner and Hilda Gibson. These programs offered us some dynamic opportunities to combine important community connections with biblical and faith-building messages to our viewers.

Our Visitors

- A homeless gentleman continues to stop by the studio several times a week to give his offering into the work of the kingdom. He insists on sliding his dollar between the doors. He doesn't want to be approached, as we have tried to offer thanksgiving and prayer, but he simply wants to give to the Lord in complete anonymity. The Lord sees him and will bless him abundantly as we offer gratitude and call down a hundred-fold blessing onto him.
- An elderly lady came by and asked if we knew Jesus. Susan, our secretary, responded "Yes, I do! He's my best friend!" The lady was from a local church, and as the Lord opened up avenues, Susan offered scriptures and kindness which the lady received. She left with a big hug, and said that Susan was a good friend to Jesus.

Coming Up....

- We continue to help our local churches with community events. A local congregation, Kawaiaha Church, held a Billy Graham MY Hope event on October 21st along with a complimentary dinner. The local Gideons chapter was on hand to provide Bibles to those who accepted Christ as their Savior.
- Station Manager Cheryl Witbeck attended the HallowHim festival on Molokai, sponsored by several Christian churches on the island. We were able to connect the Impact 808 ministry from Oahu to perform their feats of strength at both locations and the High School there. TBN provided SMILE children's network bags for the kids. The people there love Jesus and love TBN.
- We are excited for the upcoming Christmas festivities and the opportunity to share the birth of Jesus with tourists and locals alike during the week of Christmas from Kawaiaha'o Church, right across the street from the secular holiday events going on at City Hall. TBN Hawaii will be in charge of the music for the night of Dec. 20th and has networked to provide other local ministry participants for the other nights too. Our very own Joy in Our Town host Athena Sorensen will be singing for the pageant going on inside the church, and TBN Hawaii guest musician Jason Alan will provide praise and worship on the grounds outside. There will be food trucks and games for the children. We will also have a table and possible a game booth outside.
- We are awaiting a green light to advertise TBN's prayer line on our local city buses. Our hope is that those riding the buses will see our ad and call for prayer especially during this holiday season when many people suffer from depression and loneliness.
