

KDTX DALLAS, TX

December 2016 Report

Programming & Production

Eliezar Bonilla hosted Praise SALSA Style! featuring Wilfredo Santos, John Ramirez, and Jesus Chapman, with music by Ke'ron Sims.

Prophetic Whisper was taped at the IPC with Aquilla Nash.

Creation in the 21st Century with host David Rives welcomed Dr. Georgia Purdom, who explained that Adam and Eve would have contained the genetic information for all the different shades of people and passed them all on in different combinations. Chuck Thurston discussed the complex design of the human body. James Worrell talked about DNA and its designer, God. Your retina, iris, palm print, thumb print and DNA are all unique. Steve Ham told us that most ancient civilizations have a legend of a global flood.

Joy in Our Town welcomed Jim Mustain with Loving Community, who talked about connecting with people in your neighborhood. Jeff McKissack with Defense by Design gave us tips about workplace safety. Lieutenants Timothy and Andrea Israel with the Salvation Army spoke about that group's Christmas Angel Tree initiative for the homeless. Jessica Brazeal with Genesis Women's Shelter described their Faith Community Coalition. Jennifer Johnson with Crossroads Community Services talked about providing essentials for Dallas homeless families. Assata Thomas with Quest for Greater Success described how they help the DFW underprivileged community. S. Michael Craven with Bridge Builders told what their organization does to aid with poverty alleviation. Lena Google with Stonegate Christian Academy teaches her students how to instill a devotion to God that transforms the community.
