Creation in the 21st Century with host David Rives welcomed Dr. Russell Humphreys with the Institute for Creation Research who told us time does not tick at the same rate everywhere. Time flows at different rates at different places. James Worrell with the Society of Biblical Astronomy said evolution is a theory, not a science. We have not ever observed a star being born. Dr. Robert Carter with Creation Ministries International observed that the purpose of the Genesis writer was not to get the age of the world, it was to give a family tree. Dr. Chuck Thurston, M.D., said our heart is a throne with coronary arteries (coronation-crown). The person who sits on the throne is in charge.

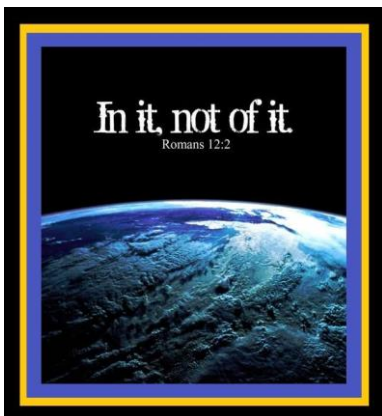

Joy in Our Town welcomed guest Karen Dudley with Dallas International Street Church who talked about their women's home that offers a discipleship program. Ken Goodgames with Transformance, Inc. described steps to financial freedom. David and Amy Ensminger with Creating Intimacy and Respect, Inc. taught about how to improve marriage relationships. Summer Okimoto, DNP, CNM, talked about how midwives provide care for women and their families. David Rawles, Career Coach with Career Solutions, gave tips to job seekers and career changers. Loretta Burns with AB Christian Learning Center talked about the benefits of families engaging in their children's education. Ryan North with Tapestry Adoption and Foster Care Services described how they help equip families that are adopting for the first time. Jeff McKissack with Defense By Design spoke about protecting yourself in unsure surroundings. There is a difference between a martyr and a victim. Arthur Porter with Dallas Designing Dreams talked about developing young entrepreneurs. Susan Frank with Hearts for Homes described how they offer free home repairs for seniors.
