

KNAT-TV23 Albuquerque, NM

November 2016

Joy In Our Town

KNAT-TV taped and featured the following guests: Mark Garcia, Gang Outreach, Victory Outreach of Albuquerque; Joe Wertz, president, New Mexico Christian Legal Aid; Doug Abrams, director, Casa de Mariposa; Kevin Steenberg, field director, Colorado and New Mexico, Prison Fellowship Ministries; Michael and Rebecca Holland, pastors and founders, the Family Lifeline; and Leticia Chavez-Paulette, executive director, A Peaceful Habitation.

Pray for America

KNAT-TV attended the pastors and ministry leaders Pray for America gathering on November 1, 2016, at New Beginnings Church of God. NM Prays co-directors are Pastor Richard A. Mansfield of New Beginnings Church of God and Pastor Brian Alarid, Passion Church. Committee members are Rev. David Cooper, New Hope Baptist Church and Pastor Danny Sanchez, Victory Outreach of Albuquerque. Over 160 area pastors attended this great event. Prayers were said for the election and for state and national elected officials. KNAT-TV set up a TBN booth and was visited by many who complimented TBN programming and multicast channels.

Teen Challenge of NM Banquet

On Friday, November 4, 2016, TBN attended the 32nd Annual Teen Challenge Banquet. Public Affairs Director Thresa Vigil and her husband Johnny attended representing KNAT-TV. A welcome and invocation were conducted by Pastor Stephen Sutherland of Revival Church with Rev. Mack Barnard introducing the new executive directors: Rev. Robert and Tracy Marquez. Teen Challenge works almost extensively with adults and is a proven faith based rehabilitation program that was launched in 1958 by David Wilkerson. Several graduates of Teen Challenge shared their testimonies of recovery from life-controlling problems, to leading them to take responsibility for community and to become productive healthy members of society. The key component to their recovery is a new identity in Christ.

