JOY IN OUR TOWN

Boys Hope Girls Hope

Boys Hope Girls Hope is breaking the cycle of poverty through education. Laura Conti, Program Director, discussed how the challenges of scholars in Colorado makes high school graduation difficult to achieve.

Colorado Division of Homeland Security & Emergency Management

Micki Trost, Strategic Communication Director, discussed wildfire safety and prevention. She gave our viewers tips on what to do before, during, and after a wildfire. Despite the risk, everyone can take steps to prepare for wildfires.

Kids First Health Care

Maria Zubia, Director of Community Outreach, addressed the importance of providing high quality health care for Adams County children. Kids First Health Care is dedicated to improving the health and well-being of infants, children, and youth through providing primary and preventative health services in partnership with schools and other community organizations

Curls on the Block

Analise Harris, educator and founder off Curls on the Block, explained how the impact of the media defining what beauty looks like has taken a toll on middle and high school aged girls. Analise provide conversations, exploration and an environment necessary to combat low self-esteem.

LOCAL PRAISE THE LORD

Awakening Colorado

Daniel Robbins was raised in a cult from childhood to adulthood and later became addicted to cocaine. God delivered him from the cult and cocaine addiction. For the past three years Daniel has been working with Awakening Colorado. Awakening Colorado is an outreach gathering helping people outside the four walls of church. Awakening Colorado heart is to see the hurting healed, lost saved, and people free from their addictions.

Love Outreach Ministries International

Pastor Leibert and First Lady Tracy helps individuals who were formerly incarcerated, and or those who have been displaced as a result of job loss, drug abuse, etc.
