

JOY IN OUR TOWN

Helping People in Need

Nehemiah Global Foundation is a Christian Ministry founded by Terry Williams. Terry discussed issues surrounding families and children in need in Colorado. The mission of Nehemiah Global Foundation is to protect and support children and special needs populations, as they move through life.

Aging Out of Foster Homes

Shelly Radic, CEO of Project 1.27 addressed issues surrounding foster kids aging out of foster homes. Project 1.27 is designed for Christians interested in becoming foster and adoptive families. Project 1.27 believes every child and youth deserves a forever home.

Providing Safe Families for Children

Safe Families for Children is a movement of Christians that returns the Church to the forefront of caring for the most vulnerable people group in society, at-risk children and their struggling parents. Kelly McFadden, Colorado Director of Safe Families for Children discussed strengthening families in crisis through a network volunteers motivated by compassion.

Transportation for Families

Chris (Operations Manager) & Suzy Mays (volunteer) of Doing His Time Prison Ministry (DHT) explained how difficult it is for families to visit their loved ones in prison due to cost and distance. DHT provides Barn-A-Bus transportation to help families visit their family member in prison.

Providing Homes for People in Need

CEO & Executive Director, Heather Lafferty of Habitat for Humanity of Metro Denver addressed issues surrounding the lack of affordable housing in Denver. Habitat for Humanity of Metro Denver is a Christian organization that believes everyone needs a decent, affordable place to live.

