Public Affairs guests during the month of December, 2015, at KTBO-TV in Oklahoma City are shown below:

Mark Woodward, with the Oklahoma Bureau of Narcotics, talked about use of heroin and a segment of teens who use the internet to access drugs.

Linda Parker and Bob Steined, with Oklahoma City SCORE Chapter, talked about the program and how they help people with the steps they need to take to get started in business for themselves.

Pam Slater, with the Oklahoma State Election board, talked about the 2016 Presidential Primary coming soon for Oklahoma. She also offered some very good information on Oklahoma’s electoral system.

Mark Woodward also talked about drug drivers compared with drunk drivers. The comparison is very interesting.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH FOR THIS DECEMBER

KTBO – TRINITY BROADCASTING provided City Rescue Mission with $5.00 WalMart gift cards to be placed in their Christmas Wish Store. Parents living at the mission had an opportunity to choose three gifts per child, of which one could be a gift card, to give to their children at Christmas. City Rescue has many different programs for those staying at the mission and trying to better themselves and eventually leave the mission.
