Hope For Abused Women

Minister Nora Price, from the Haven of Rest, spoke On Joy in Our Town about her own sufferings from spousal abuse and how God delivered and healed her. Harvest Home is for women in tough circumstances where she offers counseling and witnesses for Christ.

Christopher Milo Talks Bullying

Christopher Milo from New Life Fellowship Church joined us on Joy. He works with youth and explored what bullying is. He encourages parents to listen to their kids, know what bullying truly is, and get rid of pride as they help their children focus on Christ.

Taking It To The Streets

Host Shaneen Harris interviews Pastor Daniel Core with the Rain Revival Center. Pastor Core talked about poor parental guidance and heroin addiction. With the help of Christ and the church going where the people are, our communities can receive the Truth and be saved.
