

WELF Dalton Georgia Report for April 2016

- ❖ WELF's local Praise the Lord program recorded host Pastor Ciby Thomas spoke with special guest Felix Chivandire, a visiting pastor from Nigeria. Pastor Felix talks about the persecution of Christians in that country and how the rapidly growing church is dealing with this issue. Felix shared some principles from the Word of God concerning freedom as well as persecution and his personal testimony of how he came to know God in the midst of the Muslim culture. It was a very inspiring program.

- ❖ We are now posting video segments of Joy in Our Town and Praise the Lord for our viewers on our local Facebook page. We are getting great feedback — viewer's love it!
- ❖ TBN partnered with Dade County High School in its new initiative, Partners in Education. The third event this year was the career day at the middle school.
- ❖ This month Joy in Our Town featured the organization "Kids On The Block." Our host spoke with Kelly Williams and two of her puppets, Eddie Franklin and Claire Sanchez. The puppets have a conversation in front of young children, unpacking delicate social issues that adults are reluctant to deal with. Some of these issues are healthy eating habits, bullying and how to stay safe. Our Joy host had a very spirited discussion with the puppets concerning bullying and how to eat right.

❖ Another Joy in Our Town program featured “Happinest” with wildlife experts Alix Parks and Sherry Teas. They discussed wildlife rehabilitation and the importance of it in the environment. They talked about how far down the food chain the loss of animal life due to human interference can be effected. The issue with most animal injuries is human involvement, for example being hit by a car, fly into a window, or perhaps habitat loss due to new home construction. “Happinest” has a state certified animal rehab facility for the animals and they do take volunteers.

TBN was represented at the Scenic City Women's Network Monthly luncheon. SCWN offers women in business and leadership positions support, network opportunities and mentorship with other women of faith. This month's keynote speaker Dr. McKenzie-Ives. Sandy is a Certified Executive Coach and a licensed Counselor and Corporate Chaplain. Sandy brought us lots of tips for personal improvement along with some inspiring stories of women in the workplace. Sandy's main point was encouraging women to be the best they can be.
