Impressive New Sign

This month our new TBN sign was installed on the front of our stucco building. Apparently it has gotten the attention of a few people who frequently drive by or come into the Mendel Parkway location. It is quite noticeable from the street. Due to the bright colors, the new sign brings a fresh new look to the building.

CPR Certification for all Staff

The entire staff at TBN Montgomery received certification for CPR and the use of an AED (Automated External Defibrillator) from the American Heart Association. The CPR AED training was conducted by a licensed medic who trained the staff in the proper use of an AED and how to tell the difference between a heart attack and cardiac arrest. The instructor also demonstrated the Heimlich maneuver.

TBN Montgomery has remained steady in its views and “likes” for the last month. Many of the pastors and guests that were aired on our local station are now sharing our social media page with others across the country. We are now promoting the changes in our Joy in Our Town program. Those who watch our Facebook page love the fact that Joy in Our Town is now a ministry based program giving Biblical answers to the problems in society.

Teenagers find that Jesus Christ gives them a life worth living

Joy host Felicia Taylor interviewed Zachary Bigley with Zachary Bigley's Ministries about teenage suicide and how to address the problem from a Biblical standpoint. Bigley says suicide is a growing issue worldwide and the Montgomery area is no exception. He travels the country and the world ministering to youth. In recent meetings, he started asking if there is anyone in the crowd dealing with suicide or thoughts of killing themselves. He said hundreds of hands went up and his ministry team began to cast out spirits of suicide. His youth camp in Florida which is primarily a camp for Christian kids, had several attendees who admitted to having suicidal thoughts. One of the suicidal kids was a pastor's kid. Bigley spoke about how young people are faced with many, many pressures from peer pressure to identity crisis. Young people these days are being bullied over social media as well as on the school yard. They don't know how to handle themselves when they feel like outcasts. Others are having problems at home when they have to see their parents splitting up, or if they live with an alcoholic or drug addicted parent. Suicide in Christian homes is on the rise. Children being raised by pastors have added pressure because people have very high expectations of them. When they don't meet those expectations they feel ostracized.

Bigley says that this generation of young people have the highest potential to tear down the kingdom of darkness than any previous generation.

Because of smart phones and electronic devices, the youth of today have access to a world of information at their fingertips. If they use what they have for God, the devil is threatened by their potential. This is why the enemy of our souls want to take out as many young people as he can. Bigley's ministry is working on counseling young people about who God is and who they are in Christ. He is teaching youth groups about their purpose in God. He says it is important to bring children to know the Lord and then recognize their hope in the Lord. They do have a hope and a future.

Felicia Taylor and Zachary Bigley.

Zachary Bigley has a real heart for the youth. He says they don't really want to end their lives but they are just crying out for a reason to live.

WMCF Station Manager Aaron Motley prays with Daniel Okobe, a visitor from Uganda Africa. Daniel is the owner and manager of FAITH Radio Uganda who visited TBN Montgomery recently. He was impressed with what the Lord is doing through TBN. Daniel's ministry reaches out to orphans and poverty sickened people in his country. The two agreed in prayer for the increase of the gospel message around the world and that God would use the media to bring people to know the Lord.
