WSFJ TBN NEWS OCTOBER

Sending the Hope and Grace of Jesus to the World!

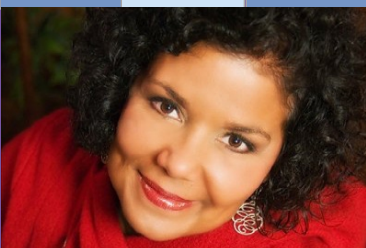

In October we saw an increase in people following WFSJ on social media.

Our Facebook page Increased with new "Likes" this past month.

We had some great traffic and interaction on our local page as we surpassed 2,097 "Likes!" Our TBN 2nd Chance Facebook page had a good month of increase with 44 new likes and 3,000 views taking us to 6,062 followers. We were blessed to receive a letter from an inmate thanking us for the book we sent him and how his faith was strengthened!

WSFJ TV-51/TBN Columbus was so honored and proud to partner with Pastor Michael Young, Senior Pastor of Christ Cathedral Church, and Pastor Waymon Malone, Jr., to provide care, food, and the Word of God to impoverished families at the Mt. Vernon Plaza Community.

Judy Jacobs came to Columbus, Ohio, to minister at the Gitty Women of God Conference. She took the time out of her busy schedule to bless our local viewers with a word of encouragement of God's grace and love.

October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month. Diona Clark is a domestic violence survivor whom we featured on Joy in Our Town. She is a walking miracle & has been since she was shot in the chest at point blank range by her ex-boyfriend in 2006.

Steve Fletcher and Tracey Foe, Pastor/ Media Director for Matthew 25:35 Ministries – Broad St. Mission, were with us to share information regarding efforts in assisting the community with issues such as homelessness and addiction.
